READING AND MEDITATION:

Easter Dawn: Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! The Church gathers at dawn and remembers the early hours of the first Easter Sunday. After three days in the tomb, Christ returned to dry our tears and remove our fears. Jesus wants no soul left in mourning over death. He laid down his life, and he took it up again. He removed the sting of death (Second Lesson) by becoming salvation for us (First Lesson), so that we can call God our Father (Gospel).

As you study this week, seek to find the connecting theme in all the lessons by using Luther’s Four Big Barber Questions to ponder and discuss each individual reading:

1. What is God saying to me in this lesson?
2. For what does this lesson lead me to give thanks?
3. What sins does this lesson lead me to confess?
4. For what does this lesson lead me to pray?

THE GOSPEL: JOHN 20:1-18

After Good Friday, Jesus’ followers were quick to believe all he had said about his crucifixion, but slow to believe any of his promises of the resurrection. In the early morning hours, the women trudged toward the tomb, expecting only to find a dead man. The sight of the empty tomb made Mary Magdalene so despondent that she left before hearing the angels’ message. Peter and John raced to the tomb, but left with only the stirrings of faith. Mary stayed behind at the tomb, alone with her tears and fears. What love we see in our Savior’s appearance to Mary! Though risen and glorious, he does not forget a single soul, but comes to Mary to dry her tears and take away her fears. In that one word, “Mary,” every Christian hears his own name on the lips of the Savior, and in Mary’s cry, “Rabboni!” we feel our own joy at the Savior who loves us like this! We do not need to cling to Jesus’ feet to keep him from leaving. No, it was once for all that he died. Now he is the Living One who holds the keys of Death and Hades.

SECOND LESSON: 1 CORINTHIANS 15:51-57

In the realm of mortal existence, dead is dead. It is death’s finality—its irreversibility—that makes man fear it. At the grave, all the hopes and dreams of mortal man are dashed, and survivors are left with nothing but mourning and tears. But look at this...behold! Paul reveals a mystery: the dead will be raised! The body corrupted by the ground will be raised incorruptible, and the man brought low by his mortality will be raised immortal. Dead is not dead forever! Death, in fact, is not final at all! The mystery revealed is the truth that man has been longing to hear since the Garden: the dead will live. Jesus Christ is the resurrection-firstfruits from the harvest field of humanity, and that means many more will follow. Suddenly, the tomb is not a place of fear, but a place of hope. Jesus comes even to the graveside to dry our tears and remove our fears. The debt of sin is paid; the law is fulfilled. So where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?
