READING AND MEDITATION:

Maundy Thursday: Blood paints the way to salvation. Yet “not all the blood beasts” (CW 128) could for sin atone. Fulfilling the Old, the Lamb of God establishes the New Covenant in his own body and blood.

As you study this week, seek to find the connecting theme in all the lessons by using Luther’s Four Big Barber Questions to ponder and discuss each individual reading:

1. What is God saying to me in this lesson?
2. For what does this lesson lead me to give thanks?
3. What sins does this lesson lead me to confess?
4. For what does this lesson lead me to pray?

THE GOSPEL: LUKE 22:7-20

Here is the final Passover and the establishment of the New Covenant meal. Through the sacrifice of his own body and blood, the Lamb of God brings assurance of the forgiveness of sins and strengthening of faith. Participation in this, his body and blood, proclaims his death until we eat and drink it with him in eternity.

My takeaways:

SECOND LESSON: HEBREWS 10:15-25

Linking promise to fulfillment, shadow to reality, the Holy Spirit testifies to the new covenant. The sacrifice has been made, once for all. The purifying waters of baptism have connected us to his death and life. His blood marks the door frames of our hearts. Yes, all barriers have been removed so that we may approach the God of the Covenant in the full confidence of forgiveness.

My takeaways:

SUPPLEMENTAL FIRST LESSON: JEREMIAH 31:31-34

Jeremiah prophesies of the New Covenant. Quoted in Hebrews 10 and fulfilled in Luke 22, this prophecy proclaims a time that has now come. Gone is the covenant of old. It is replaced by knowledge of the Lord, membership in his family, and the forgiveness of sins. He is our God; we are his people.

My takeaways:

FIRST LESSON: EXODUS 12:1-14

With the Lord’s judgment at hand the blood of lambs is a sign of his faithfulness to all Israel. The gore marks doorframes for the deliverance of Israel from the judgment of God upon Egypt. A shadow of promised salvation from eternal death through the sacrificial Lamb of God, the first Passover is to be remembered from generation to generation.
